Democratic Ticket, Election, Tuesday, November 8th, 1893. For President: GROVER CLEVELAND. of New York. For Vice-President : ADLAI E. STEVENSON, of Illinois Democratic State Convention.

The Democratic State Committee of West Virginia, at a meeting held at Parkersburg, on January 28th, 1892, determined and ordered that the Democratic State Convention to nominate candidates for the offices of Governor, State Superintendent of Free Schools, Auditor, Treasurer, Attorney General, and two Judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals, and to select two Presidential Electors at large, and transact such other business as may properly come before the convention, will be held on Wednesday, July 27th, A. D. 1892, at the City of Parkersburg, in the County of Wood.

And at said Convention each of the counties in the State will be entitled to one vote therein for every one hundred votes or fractional part thereof over fifty, cast for the Democratic candidate for President of the United States at the election held in 1888, and that no county shall be entitled to more delegates than she has votes to cost. The various county executive committees are requested to take such action as may be necessary to have their county represented in said convention. All persons, regardless of former party affiliations, who believe in tarifire form and an housest and economical administration of government, thereby securing te the people a reduction of taxation, are invited to co-operate with the Democratic party in sending delegates to said convention.

B. H. OXLEY, T. S. RILEY, Chairman.

A NEW variety of Coal just received, for A NEW variety of Coal just received, for A sale at the Charles Town Elevator. What is remarkable about this celebrated Coal, it is a Semi-Bituminous Coal, partakes of the free burning quality of Cumberland Coal, and of the cleanly quality of anttracite. Burns as freely as dry hickory wood, will outlast any other Coal in the market, making no cinders and is perfectly clean of slate. It has given satisfaction to all who have used it, and all we sak is a trial order. For the convenience of my customers I have placed a slate at Mr. S. C. Young's meat store, next to the post office, where orders can be left or by postal card.

Also keep on hand First-Class Roller Flour and Bran, as well as all kinds of Hard and Soft Coal.
